

DALLAS LOOK

by Kristie Ramirez

FOREVER in BLUE JEANS

Paired with sandals or stilettos, jeans are the foundation of the modern-day uniform.

WHETHER YOU PREFER THE CLASSIC look of Chanel, the outrageous glamour of Dior, or the simple comfort of a t-shirt and trainers, we think you'll agree that the one great equalizer in fashion is blue jeans. Once relegated to casual weekend wear, jeans now sit proudly on a fashion pedestal—these days you can wear your favorite pair of Habituals to a cocktail party. This month, we're showcasing a customized pair of jeans by Dallas siblings Sandra and Nick Florez of Greenhouse Denim, who debuted their line last year at Bergdorf Goodman. A-list celebs like Britney Spears, Gwen Stefani, and Janet Jackson have snatched up oodles of this over-the-top denim. Slip on a pair of these beauties and you, too, will feel like a star.

Amy is wearing: Laundry tank top ($78/Lord & Taylor, NorthPark Center); lime Dr. Scholl's slides ($39/Lord & Taylor, NorthPark Center); and custom jeans from Greenhouse Denim by Sandra Florez ($165/www.greenhousestudio.com or 972-839-1911).
